the day of the death of Berry; was going down to the navy-yard, and was met by James Conner, who told him that there was a fight near by, and when he went to the place he looked through the fence, and saw a man lying among the shrubbery. Just then, John Devlin came out, and said, "get a cart, and take that man away from here." Witness asked him what was the matter, and he replied that there was a man sick, and he did not want him to die there. Witness then went into the garden, and went up to the body, and recognised it as the body of Berry; he gave one gasp for breath, and that was the last witness as of life that witness as min. Witness told the people there to surround the house, and not let the Devlins escape; this was done, and that was the last witness as we of the transaction.

The defence these are successed one of Berry's marriage with Miss Devlin. Witness in Washington, his stepfather. Mr. Ferguson, his mother, and his sister. He also pointed out to witness a man on the steps of Jones's Hotel, in Chestnut street, Philadelphia, who he said was Mr. Beale, his brother-in-law; this was only a day or two after her matriage. Mr. Devlin wrote to witness about he steps of Jones's Hotel, in Chestnut street, Philadelphia, who he said was Mr. Beale, his brother-in-law; this was only a day or two after her matriage. Mr. Devlin wrote to witness about her steps of Jones's Hotel, in Chestnut street, Philadelphia, who he said was Mr. Beale, his brother-in-law; this was only a day or two after her matriage. Mr. Devlin she said she would appear to testify against him; but it seemed that Berry escaped the vigilance of the officers. Witness has seven or eight letters in her possession from Mr. Devlin also, one from her husband in reply to one which she wrote to him, asking him to send her some money.

WALTER BENNER, who was sworn.—Met Jas. Devlin on the day of the murder, near Mr. McCoy's house; taked with him a few minutes; this was about quarter-past four o'clock; went into his house with him; witness had a dog with him, and was comparing dogs with Devlin; went into the tool-house, and remained about half an hour talking with him. Witness then came out and left for home; Devlin was at the Capitol previous to that. Spent some time talking about dogs, gunning, &c; Devlin appeared very amiable that evening; saw nothing in his manner or expression to excite suspicion on that occasion. Left the house before Berry came there. Have known James Devlin for eight years, and for six years very intimately; considered his disposition good. Also know John Devlin, but not so intimately as James; have thought he was eccentric at times.

Cross cramined.—When witness left the premises went directly home, out of the front gate. Did not see John Devlin there that day.

Devin there that day.

Mrs. Mary Drylin sworn. Was in the back parlor when the carriage containing Berry came to the house; James said to John, go and fasten the door so that he cannot come in; before all the doors could be fastened Berry rushed in, and John told him that his sister was not at witness of all the doors could be fastened Berry rashed in, and John teld him that his sister was not at home; Berry came into the sitting room as if he wanted to have a fight; would not listen to what John said; Berry said to witness told him that his wife was not there. John told Berry to leave the room, as he had frequently been forbidden to come to the home; Berry then seized John with both hands; witness told John to try to get away from him, and then left the room; John followed into the kitchen, and Berry also came out, and took of his coat very deliberately and put it upon the kitchen table, and took his hat off; witness was so frightened that she left the room, is blink in the post them, cursing then, and threatening to kill James in particular. He said to James, "You have abused me through my wife; and you have abused ne through my wife; and you have abused he was with her mother." He also said that he was lot cave for Baltimore the next morning, and had come to ake satisfaction. He rolled up his sleeves and went out of attack James. Witness got between them, and James in particular. He said to James, "You have abused me through my wife; and you have abused he was with her mother." He also said that he was lot cave for Baltimore the next morning, and had come to ake satisfaction. He rolled up his sleeves and went out of attack James. JANES OWERE SWOTH.—Saw Berry at Hamlin's restaurant on the day of his death; it was after Congress adjourned, in the afternoon. Mr. Smith was there also. On that day the House of Representatives adjourned at half-past four o'clock; witness is employed at the Capitol; on that day, after adjournment, stopped into Hamlin's; witness was invited by Berry to drink, and did so; Herry and Smith were then both under the influence of liquor. Have no personal acquaintance with either of the Devlins. Smith was showing a directory to Mr. Hamlin, and they were talking about it. Saw Mr. Berry vomiting at the carriage; he and Mr. Smith both acted as people do who are under the influence of liquor.

John Dosoho sworn.—Is barkeeper at Hamlin's restaurant; saw Smith and Berry there on the day of Berry's death; they came in a hack. Smith drank twice at Hamlin's restaurant; he was not very sober then, and Berry was also intoxicated. Did not know Berry at the time; but after he went out, witness was told that it was ho. Thinks Berry paid for the drinks for the party.

JANES TROMESON SWOTH.—Was standing in Hamlin's restaurant, reading a newspaper, on the 6th of April, when Smith and Berry came in; saw Smith drink at the bar; both of them were under the influence of liquor. Witness drank with them.

It being nearly four o'clock, p. m., the Court adjourned until to morrow morning.

SUMMER POLICE UNIFORMS. We have good news for the police, who, during these excessively warm days, have suffered excruciatingly in their thick winter uniforms. Their handsome appearance, instead of being destroyed, will certainly be increased, as will be found after a perusal of the following regulations issued by the Mayor:

"Chief of Police and Captain of the Guard.—White straw that, black band, with letters C. of P. and C. of G.; Rushat, black band, with letters C. of P. and G. of G.; Russia duck coat and pants, gold straps on shoulders, yellow metal buttons on coat, with P. G. on the face.

"Licutenants of Police.—White straw hat, with black band, on which shall be printed Licutenant of Police, No. 1, 2. Coat, pants, and vest, Russia duck, with yellow metal buttons, on which shall be engraved the letters L. P., and gold band on left shoulder.

"Policenen.—Sack coat of Russia duck, pants of the same material, and light vest; the buttons on coat and vest the same as worn on winter uniform; a dark summer hat, broad black band, with the same kind of wreath and number as on the winter cap. The Auxiliary Guard and number as on the winter cap. The Auxiliary Guard shall have the letters A. G. and their respective numbers within a wreath of yellow metal on the front of their hats, and the letters A. G. on the face of the buttons worn on the coat; and in all other respects the same uniform as the day police."

The first annual meeting of the National Teachers' Association will be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, commencing at 10 o'clock, a. m., August 11th.

At this meeting lectures are expected from the following distinguished educators: Introductory Address by the president, Z. Richards, Principal of a Classical School, Washington, D. C.; J. D. Philbrick, Superintendent of Schools, Boston, Massachusetts; J. N. Mc-Elligott, Principal of a Classical School, New York city; Daniel Read, Professor in the University of Wisconsin; John Young, Professor in the Northwestern Christian University, Indiana; Hon. John B. Malliard, Georgia; Hon. C. H. Wiley, North Carolina.

Subjects for Discussion.—1. The expediency and justice of maintaining free schools throughout our country by general taxation.

2. Parochial Schools: Are they in harmony with the spirit of American institutions?

Mixed Schools—The propriety and expediency of educating both sexes together, in the same classes.

THE RIGHT WAY INSTEAD OF THE WHONG WAY. WE HO The Right Way Isseed or the Whong Way.—We notice that the attention of the city authorities is often called, by correspondents of our city papers, to nulsances, disordered pumps, &c. We are requested to remind our fellow-citizens that such is not the legitimate mode for attaining their wishes. A communication ought to be addressed to the mayor, by whom it will be promptly referred to the proper municipal officer, with instructions to investigate the case and apply the remedy. Newspaper complaints are only in order when a petition has been neglected or redress is capitalously denied. It will be the endeavor of the mayor to render an appeal to the press unnecessary.

CHARLES'S LONDON CORDIAL GIN.—THE ORIGINAL AND GNIA LONDON GIN DIPORTED.—The Gin, distilled in London from sound barley, under the surveillance of the British excise laws, is delicately flavored with a thioture of the Bulian jumper berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, reudering it, in the opinion of the most eminent modical men, the purest and safest situation or discretic drink in use.

It is a stellocus tonic, of a soft and, deficate favore, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of the harsh, arried taste which ronders the article known as Holland Gh, or Schanges, so objectionable.
Though not intended as a medicine, this recommended by physiciansgenerally in cases of Dyspepsia, Gost, Rheumatiam, Propay, Gravel, Colle, Cholera, Pever and Ague, Piricture, Discussor of the Urinary Organs, the Ridneys and the Howele, Nervous Debitity, &c., whilst the weaker sex will fact by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces CHARLES'S LONDON CORFIAL GIN "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to settlers in the southern and western States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and nir.

For sale in quarts at seventy-live cente, and pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, process, fruiterers, and country merchanias. Beware of instations. Buy only CHARLES'S. NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Washington of Ford & Brodder, Innied B. Clark, J.

B. Wilson, Hamilton & Leach, Wallage Eliot, Richard J. Ryon.
